

ALSACE

APPELLATION ALSACE CONTRÔLÉE

Emile Beyer

DEPUIS 1580

RIESLING
TRADITION

A dry, delicately fruity wine that has a bouquet of great finesse with citric nuances and a distinct mineral character. Riesling is the signature varietal of Alsace and produces the region's finest wines. Aromatic and fermented dry, the Riesling of Alsace is first and foremost a wine for fine cuisine, typically served with river fish, shellfish and other seafood, or chicken and game birds.
