Winemaker Notes:

As a winemaker, I have always felt the Öküzgözü grape had more to offer. This is before I wandered through Şükrü Baran's vineyard. Working with him over the last few years, we have developed balanced vines that deliver the same fruit characteristics but with intense concentration and balance. Silky tannins interact with dense charms that come from this single vineyard.

Working with soft fermentations, barrel aging and no filtration brings out the best of the grape and the specific vineyard site that is uniquely Anatolian.

Aromas and flavors of dark cherries, raspberries, sour cherries, pomegranates, cornelian cherries, black mulberries, blackberries, eucalyptus, mint and straw.

Unfined and unfiltered; decanting is recommended. -- Daniel O'Donnell
