

Montepulciano d'Abruzzo

Tasting Notes

Harvested from the chalky hills and clay soils of the Chieti province of the Abruzzo region in central Italy, 50 miles east of Rome, this intensely vibrant red wine has a light blueberry nose that leads to notes of plum and blackberry on the palate.

Pair with red meats roasted or grilled and rich tomato-based pasta dishes.

Montepulciano d'Abruzzo

Tasting Notes

Harvested from the chalky hills and clay soils of the Chieti province of the Abruzzo region in central Italy, 50 miles east of Rome, this intensely vibrant red wine has a light blueberry nose that leads to notes of plum and blackberry on the palate.

Pair with red meats roasted or grilled and rich tomato-based pasta dishes.

MARITIME WINE TRADING COLLECTIVE