

Wine Spectator

June 2017

92
POINTS

J. Booswatter

Protagonist Conner-Lee Vineyard 2014

Rich and polished, defined by a core of refined tannins, wrapped in textured flavors of black cherry, espresso and toasty spice that glide through the long finish. Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Malbec. Drink now through 2021. 1,400 cases made.

J. Bookwater

Protagonist
Conner-Lee Vineyard 2014

“Rich and polished, defined by a core of refined tannins, wrapped in textured flavors of black cherry, espresso and toasty spice that glide through the long finish. Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Malbec.”

Wine Spectator
June 2017

J. Bookwater

Protagonist Conner-Lee Vineyard 2014

“Rich and polished, defined by a core of refined tannins, wrapped in textured flavors of black cherry, espresso and toasty spice that glide through the long finish. Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Malbec.”

Wine Spectator
June 2017

MARITIME
WINE TRADING CO.

