

Alto Stratus 2015

Carignan is most definitely the grape variety for hot, dry climates, yielding wines full of harmony and elegance.

Slightly wild, herbaceous aromas with notes of rhubarb, licorice, gingerbread and pear. Round, velvety and delectable from the start. Creamy, fruity notes reminiscent of sour cherry flan. Serve at 62°F with feathered game, cured ham, spicy cuisine or Japanese dishes.

Alto Stratus 2015

Carignan is most definitely the grape variety for hot, dry climates, yielding wines full of harmony and elegance.

Slightly wild, herbaceous aromas with notes of rhubarb, licorice, gingerbread and pear. Round, velvety and delectable from the start. Creamy, fruity notes reminiscent of sour cherry flan. Serve at 62°F with feathered game, cured ham, spicy cuisine or Japanese dishes.

MARITIME
WINE TRADING CO.

